Chartway Credit Union Recognized for Third Consecutive Year as One of the 50 Most Community-Minded Companies in Hampton Roads

Press release courtesy of Points of Light in partnership with VOLUNTEER Hampton Roads

Virginia Beach, VA (December 1, 2025) – Chartway Credit Union has been named an honoree of The Civic 50 Hampton Roads by VOLUNTEER Hampton Roads and Points of Light, the world’s largest organization dedicated to volunteer service. The award recognizes Chartway as one of the most community-minded companies in Hampton Roads determined by an independently administered and scored survey. The Civic 50 Hampton Roads initiative, modeled after Points of Light’s national program, provides a standard for superior corporate citizenship and showcases how companies can use their time, skills and resources to drive social impact in their company and communities.

"We're honored to be recognized by VOLUNTEER Hampton Roads and Points of Light for the third year in a row," said Brian Schools, president & CEO of Chartway Credit Union. "This recognition reflects the heart of who we are. At Chartway, we believe in building up our communities through meaningful service, and I'm proud of our team's commitment to making a lasting impact."

"We're so proud to celebrate Chartway Credit Union as a 2025 Civic 50 Hampton Roads Honoree!" said Maerine Mitchel, president & CEO of VOLUNTEER Hampton Roads. "Their dedication to uplifting our community and inspiring others to give back truly reflects the heart of what it means to lead with purpose. Congratulations to the entire Chartway team for making a meaningful difference across Hampton Roads."

The Civic 50 Hampton Roads survey is administered by True Impact, a company specializing in helping organizations maximize and measure their social and business value and consists of quantitative and multiple-choice questions that inform the scoring process.
